

Save the Date ..... November 19-20, 2010

1:00 PM Friday thru 3:00 PM Saturday

(More information coming soon)

Bishop W. Earl Bledsoe and the North Texas Conference invite you to attend the 3rd Annual “Can We Talk” Conference. The goal of the CWT Conference is to educate, equip, and empower African American church leadership, in order to facilitate the revitalization of African American United Methodist Churches. The theme for this year’s conference is: “Effective Leadership: Changing Our Reality” So ..... “Can we talk?”

LOCATION:

ST PAUL

St. Paul United Methodist Church

1816 Routh Street

Dallas, TX. 75201

(Downtown Dallas in the Dallas Arts District)

REGISTRATION: $50

(Includes Meals)

SPONSORED BY:

South Central Jurisdiction: College of Bishops, Mission Council &
Black Methodist for Church Renewal

LEADERSHIP:

Bishop W. Earl Bledsoe & supportive friends.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

Laity & Clergy of Christian ancestry with ties to the African American Church